I. Gymnastics Unlimited Parents Club Statement

The Gymnastics Unlimited Parents Club purpose for existence is to provide financial, administrative, moral, social, and educational support for the representative teams of Gymnastics Unlimited to ensure that gymnasts will be successful in their endeavors in gymnastics and their own future lives.

Financial Support may be applied to:

- USA Gymnastics membership numbers.
- Meet entry fees for local, regional and national competitions.
- Coaches' session fees for all competitive meets.
- Travel expenses for the coaches' out-of-town expenses.
- Special clinics as requested and approved by the coaches.
- Post Season entrance fees and travel expenses.
- Competitive Uniforms.
- Tuition

Administrative Support includes:

- All recordkeeping: balancing of checking account, completing all reports and paying all the aforementioned fees and expenses.
- Organizing, scheduling, and managing the concession stand for home meets, including payment of its related bills.
- Running the monthly GU Parents Club meetings and annual meeting.
- Organizing and scheduling all approved fundraising endeavors.

Moral, Social and educational support includes

- Providing the opportunity for gymnastics and its benefits.
- Assisting in the development of solid character and self-confidence.
- Enhancing athlete communication skills via support of the team.
- Ensuring the advancement of life skills through working with others.
